Gentlemen:

Your postal has been forwarded me from Washington. I have written the Numismatist to remove the adv. which I paid for one insertion and did not expect to have same appear more than once. I have used all the coins named in adv. and have nothing to offer just at present.

Very respectfully

Gentlemen:

Will you kindly indentify the English coin of which impression is enclosed. A bank in the South with whom we correspond sends the same to us and states that it has some gold in its composition and weighs nearly 1 ½ pwt. Please let me know what it is and its approximate value.

Thanking you very kindly in advance I am

Messrs. H. K. Chapman,
Philadelphia.

Gentlemen:

Replying to your favor of yesterday will say that I do not care to sell any of the lot of coins named until my add appears in the Numismatist as I hope to get $185. for the lot.

I would not sell the good dollars named in the list at 1% each as they are selected coins and include two scarce mint marks 1851 C & 1859 C.

As to the other good dollars I secured a little better rate on them by assuring the New York party that he would have the preference in further shipments unless I secured a better price.

I paid $14. for the Proof eagles of 1906-07 10-11 at one of Mercy's sales last year and there were two other bidders at the same price he told me.

If I do not find a purchaser for the lot I will be glad to make you prices.

Respectfully,

Geo. O. Walton
